

School Counseling log breakdown of time use log:

Guidance: Guidance activities help all students learn and apply knowledge needed to make sound educational, career, and social-personal decisions.

- Can be provided by: Parents, Teachers, School Counselors, Community Members

Counseling: Counseling activities help some students successfully address social and/or personal concerns that are interfering with learning.

- Can be provided by: Licensed School Counselors, Licensed School Social Workers, Licensed School Psychologists

Advocacy: Advocacy activities help create an environment that supports rigorous learning for all groups of students. (Ex: Free/Reduced Lunches, Special Education)

- Can be provided by: Licensed School Counselors and Others

Management: Activities are the “behind the scenes” tasks necessary for the school counseling program to run smoothly and efficiently.

- Can be provided by: School Counselors

Non-Program: Non-program activities include all activities performed by school counselors that do not help students: Master guidance standards, address personal or social problems that interfere with learning, etc.