

Based on a recent analysis of School data, the following trends emerged:

- A. Student achievement ratings on state accountability benchmarks are shifting in a variety of ways.
- B. There is increased pressure to increase the school's letter grade which has been a "C" for two years.
- C. Attendance and tardiness problems are increasing.
- D. Counseling interventions are generally reactive.
- E. Counselors are performing many administrative duties and seem overwhelmed, as does the principal.
- F. Student behavior problems (fighting, bullying complaints, truancy) are on the rise.
- G. Parent complaints are an ongoing challenge.
- H. Among the 65% of students who receive free / reduced lunch, there are growing social-emotional issues.